During Child Abuse Prevention Awareness Month, CASA participated in KidsFEST to raise awareness for child abuse and provide tips to prevent abuse/neglect

We are philanthropists improving our community by partnering together to support non-profit organizations serving Harvey County.

Each year the Women's Community Foundation (WCF) Board hosts an annual campaign to raise money for their general and endowed funds for the purpose of awarding grants to charities such as CASA: A Voice for Children, Safehope, New Hope Homeless Shelter, Offender/Victim Ministries, Peace Connections and many more.

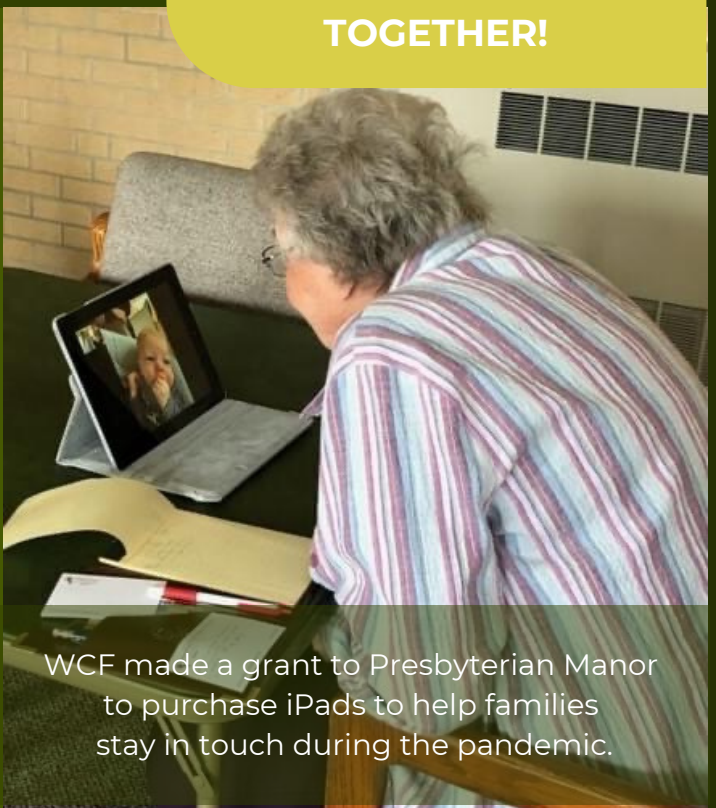
THE POWER OF COLLECTIVE GIVING

Collective giving is a rapidly growing, grassroots, philanthropic movement that empowers donors to join together and invest their financial resources for the betterment of their community.

Your gift in any amount will be combined with others' gifts to give a greater value and number of grants. These grants support charitable organizations striving to overcome systemic needs through effective programming in Harvey County.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE TOGETHER!



WCF made a grant to Presbyterian Manor to purchase iPads to help families stay in touch during the pandemic.

OUR FUNDS

WCF Impact Grant Fund

Original fund created in 2000 to support grant making efforts and operations in its entirety each year

Women's Community Foundation Endowment

Established in 2012 by the WCF board to build a sustainable source for supporting grant making in Harvey County in perpetuity

Jan Elizabeth Saab Endowment

WCF's first endowed fund established in 2013 in honor of a founding member of the WCF Giving Circle

Colleen McCullough Endowment

Established in 2014 to honor another founding member of the WCF Giving Circle

Ida "Skip" Rhoades Endowment

Created in 2019 to honor Ida "Skip" Rhoades with a donation from the R. Michael Rhoades Foundation

WCF welcomes anyone to join this diverse and inclusive group of individuals making an impact and improving quality of life for those most in need with a contribution in any amount.
