Market Commentary

The second quarter of 2019 extended the robust performance of the first part of the year, as equities rose to new all-time highs and bonds rallied alongside them. Despite the positive returns, the environment has been mixed with a relatively stable underlying economy but weakening data and persistent geopolitical tensions. Markets have been fixated on two fronts: trade and central bank policy. With the former, the US introduced new tariffs against China and Mexico, with negotiations with China renewed but still leaving both sides far apart. With central bank policy, the Federal Reserve continued its dovish pivot with interest rate cuts expected in the latter half of 2019.

S&P 500 Sector Performance

Bond Market Performance

Equity Markets Commentary

US Equities rose in the second quarter, as the S&P 500 gained 4.3% and 10 of 11 sectors finished in the black. Financials led, gaining 8.00%. Other outperformers included Materials and Tech, which were up 6.31% and 6.06%, respectively. Energy was the biggest laggard, losing 2.83%. Health Care trailed as well, adding only 1.38%. Other US indices were positive on the quarter, the Dow Jones added 3.21% and the NASDAQ gained 3.58%.

International underperformed slightly in the second quarter, as the US continued its market leadership. International markets gained, though remain under pressure as investors weigh weakening economic data in Europe. The MSCI EAFE Index (a benchmark for international developed markets) added 3.97% for US-currency investors.

Fixed Income Markets Commentary

The bond market posted gains in the second quarter as the Fed's dovish tilt and concerns surrounding global growth sent bond yields lower across the curve. The Bloomberg Barclays US Aggregate Bond Index, a general measure of the bond market, rose 3.08%. Interest rates fell during the quarter, as the yield on the 10-year US Treasury note dropped to a quarter-end 2.00% from 2.41% at the end of March. The shortest end of the curve fell as well, though remained anchored by the Fed funds rate, with the yield on the 3-month Treasury bills falling to 2.09% from 2.39%, causing the curve to invert as measured by the 10-year and the 3-month tenors.
