

NONDISCRIMINATION/DIVERSITY POLICY

The Central Kansas Community Foundation seeks to enhance the quality of life for all citizens in the central Kansas area as our dynamic community continues to grow and change. Its ability to achieve this mission and to foster a commitment to excellence can best be pursued with a governing body, work force, grantees, donors, and partners that include individuals of diverse backgrounds, beliefs and perspectives.

The Central Kansas Community Foundation adheres to nondiscrimination policy and practices that encompasses diversity, including but is not limited to, ethnicity, race, age, gender identity, sexual orientation, economic circumstance, physical and mental abilities and characteristics, and philosophy.

The Central Kansas Community Foundation respects and celebrates diversity that contributes to a healthy, caring community. The Community Foundation commits its resources to change in ways that signal to groups with diverse cultures, philosophies and experiences that they are welcome partners in its efforts.

Governance and Administration

The Central Kansas Community Foundation is committed to fostering an organization that respects and appreciates diversity in its many forms as defined above. To that end:

- It will work closely with its nominating authorities who recommend members to its board of trustees to seek community leaders who will bring diversity and varying points of view and life experiences to the board.
- It will hire staff that reflects the broad diversity of the community and will provide all staff members with an opportunity to maximize the use of their work-related skills and talents.
- It will retain a diverse group of product and service vendors to work with the Community Foundation and will strive to select product and service vendors committed to promoting a diverse workplace.

Community Partners

The Central Kansas Community Foundation values organizations within our community that are committed to promoting the broad diversity of central Kansas. It will seek grantees and partners that incorporate diversity into their missions and strive to encourage diverse governance boards, partner organizations and served constituencies wherever practicable. Toward this end, it will seek to assure that its grantmaking activities reflect and promote the diversity of the community.

Donors

In order to achieve the highest standards in all its activities, it is important that the foundation benefit from the perspectives of many different segments of the community. Toward this end, it seeks to collaborate with donors of varying means and interests and will together with donors seek to promote a healthy, caring community.

The Central Kansas Community Foundation believes that its effectiveness is enhanced when individuals with diverse backgrounds and perspectives are engaged throughout its organization. It believes that a more diverse philanthropic community, and one that reaches out to all, will result in richer and more responsive philanthropy that better meets the needs of the community.
