History of CKCF

_____ Community Foundation is an affiliate of Central Kansas Community Foundation (CKCF).

CKCF, with offices located in Newton, is the legal entity for its regional affiliates and provides back-office support in the areas of legal services, accounting, marketing, grants and scholarships programming, donor relations and fund development.

CKCF was founded in 1994. Following a stable history serving a tri-county area, the foundation merged in 2009 with the well-established Greater Newton Community Foundation.

Today, CKCF continues to demonstrate a commitment as a host foundation to strengthening communities across the entire Central Kansas region through its affiliate program.
